Order No. 39 of 2025

Dated: 02-04-2025

The Competent authority has approved as given below for the following categories of students with regard to their late physical reporting and hence completion of semester registration:

1. Students who have serious medical issues related to them or their closest family members and whose cases are cleared by the Institute medical officer.
2. Students who suffered death of some family member.
3. Students who had to write placement or other examinations at exam centres outside the UT of J&K.

The students falling in categories 1, 2, 3 are allowed to register without late fee. The list of such students will be shared by Dean Academic Affairs with the departments. However, all such students will require minimum 75% of attendance to be allowed to write End Term exam and there will be no relaxation given.

4. Students who reported late after 28 Feb. 2025 and have cited reasons other than those mentioned in categories 1, 2, and 3.

The students falling in category 04 are allowed to register with late fee of Rs 4000/-. And will require minimum 75% of attendance to be allowed to write Mid Term as well as End Term exam and there will be no relaxation given.
